

Annexure C-1(1.1.3)

Flipped Class Room

A flipped classroom is a teaching method that reverses the traditional lecture and homework structure. In a flipped classroom, students learn the material before class and then apply it during class. The goal is to use class time for more active learning, such as discussion, problem-solving and reflection.

